That minth initing rany sures was the goods. More than one Centralite had beart failure. There's a reason.

Freddy Austin deserves all the credit in the world for his game work against overwhelming odds at the start of the game. His linelsiers bouded easy chances and the Blacksmith's leader worked all the harder. Fred was also on band with a trie of nice, neat hingles at the right time.

a trio of nice, nest hingles at the right time.

You have to hand it to Young Perry. This lad was Johnny on the shot with a souple of hits that cinchest the battle in the raily. And, by the way, that lad, Cantwell, also punnied the ball a typis.

Mess, Central's receiver, cought a nifty game and also pounded Austin for a quartet of safeties. Mess looks to be about the best contoner in the scholastic rails on the showing thus far.

That night inning was a heart breaker—to Central. To see a game, which had already been put in the bat bag, taken away juzz when the happy feeling was there, is escough to take the life out of any high school wifth. But Couch Gargin never quits.

Cox, with a poor throw to King in the initith round, lost the game, as Perry scowed, with the ball, trimek king wift the ball, so the error was excasable, as Murph' was at a disadvantage. Our small have thrown Hendd out with a good pag, but larry would have sevend, as he was swer the plate when the ball practical sizes.

PAST PERFORMANCES From Past to Clark Griffith

In view of all the circumstances and happenings, you all can cut this bunch of dismal junk out of the dope, and play 'em on yesterday's form. And that E Street hapter says if all them three-legged dogs he bet on this spring had made half as good a showing as Griff's Glorious Giadiators he'd have booked his passage back to Bremen for June 1 instead of looking for a "Tou're next' job at Atlantic City.

But you can't never tell. If our brave boys play to form to-day it's hony nutry, which is Essex Court for good night! In view of all the circumsta boys play to form to-day it's usury nutry, which is Essex Court for good night!

However, we'une would advise you-all to play 'em as far hark as you can get even money, and drop a flyer on 'em to pick up another one to-day, seeing as how Woodwrol Walter wants to beat McAleer's Mastodone.

Mebbe Byron Banerell Johnson thought it for the best interests of the game to pit a check rein on our clerky wearlings. Time was when he could hedge our braws hops by hobbling a star. Given he would better come again. Might help the other clubs by sending Johnson, Groom, and Milan to coventry, but here's hoping he won't black of that.
